Dear Parents,

Thank you for allowing us the privilege of working with you and your child this year in this great adventure - preparing to be ready to learn to read.

We want to support you during these precious formative months. We would like not only to give your child a basis for learning to read, but also to help your child develop the Biblical character traits that will benefit him / her the rest of his/her life. Communication is vital throughout the year. At any point in the year, don't hesitate to discuss your child's development with us. We are engaged in a program that needs your fullest understanding and cooperation for the benefit of your child.

To assist your child during this year, here are several projects and suggestions you may want to follow:

1. Read daily to your child from books designed for his/her age. Read and tell him/her stories about Jesus.

Ask comprehension questions.

2. Sing songs and listen to music with him / her.

3. Encourage your child to cut out large pictures.

4. Discuss colors.

5. Work simple puzzles together.

6. Help your child practice zipping, buttoning, tying, and putting on wearing apparel.

7. Encourage your child to do as much as he/she can by him/herself. Give him/her specific responsibilities of which he/she is capable, expect him/her to do them, and praise him/her for each effort.

8. Encourage your child to play - with you, with other children, and alone.

9. Help him/her practice courtesies in keeping with his/her age and development.

10. Help him / her feel secure and wanted - show interest in all he/she does.

11. Teach him / her to pray, and pray with him /her.

We are indeed grateful to be able to work with your child. For the upcoming year, here are some basic materials that he/she will need:

Jumbo Crayons (basic colors)

Glue Stick (NO LIQUID GLUE)

Scissors (Blunt end)

Set of 8 Markers (Water-based, broad tip, basic colors)

Pencil

Construction Paper

Eraser

2 photographs of your child - wallet size or a snapshot

A Kindermat (If you cannot find them at Wal-Mart, they may be purchased on Amazon etc.)

A Small Blanket & Pillow for Nap Time

2 changes of clothing according to dress code to be left at Educare for accidents

Please have these supplies with you on your child's first day.

Your child is like a vessel just waiting to be filled. With your help, we desire to fill him/her with Godly character, as well as give him/her a solid basis for relating to his/her immediate world. The foundation of learning this year will affect him for a lifetime.
